Notifications

Features · https://scopematch.com/docs/notifications/

Notifications are triggered in the following situations:

- A company adds your company as a connection
- User requests to join your company profile
- A company has listed you under a product supply list

Notifications appear in your in-app inbox. Email is sent only for join requests and invitations.